WELCOME

WELCOME BACK TO THE COPPERJAX COMMUNITY STADIUM. ANOTHER MATCHDAY. ANOTHER CHANCE TO RAISE THE ROOF TOGETHER.

If the last home game showed us anything, it's that this place is becoming special. The noise. The energy. The togetherness. It was the best atmosphere we've had yet – and today we want more. Louder voices. Bigger moments. A push that carries this team over the line.

There's history on the horizon today. Back in September, we travelled to Goodison Park and claimed our first-ever Barclays Women's Super League win, with Izzy Goodwin firing home a memorable brace. Today, we have the opportunity to do another first, our first WSL double over a side. Another milestone. Another moment to write into our story.

The mood around the group couldn't be better. A strong performance against Manchester City showed exactly what this team is capable of, despite not coming away with anything. We took that belief on the road last weekend and came back with all three points against Brighton. One moment of magic made the difference, as Freya Godfrey's stunning strike sealed the win and kept our momentum rolling.

This is a team growing in confidence. A squad playing with freedom, fight and belief. And as always, your role matters. Your noise matters. Every chant, every cheer, every moment of support pushes us forward.

Make the most of everything happening around the ground today. Head to the Fanzone before kick-off, soak up the build-up, and be part of the matchday experience. For all the details on what's on, turn to page 5.

This is our home. This is our journey. And together, we keep moving forward.

COME ON LONDON CITY!

A WORD FROM EDER MAESTRE HEAD COACH

SINCE MY FIRST HOME GAME HERE, I HAVE BEEN WAITING TO COME BACK.

That day stayed with me. The energy, the support, the way you pushed the team, it meant a lot to me and to the players.

Since then, we have been working every day to grow. I see the commitment of the players in training, and I feel the belief building inside the group. We are learning about each other, improving small details, and becoming stronger together. This process is important, and we are moving in the right direction.

Today is another big moment for us. We want to put things right at home and give you something to celebrate. Three points in front of our supporters would mean everything. When you are behind us, we feel it. Your voices give us extra strength, especially in difficult moments.

I want my team to play with courage, intensity and personality. I want them to fight for every ball and for each other. But we cannot do this alone. We need you with us, from the first minute until the last.

Thank you for your support and for believing in this journey with us. Let's make this a special day together.

CHATting TO

WASSA SANGARÉ

WASSA SANGARÉ ANSWERS QUESTIONS WITH A SMILE, AND USUALLY WITH A SMALL LAUGH WHEN SHE SEARCHES FOR THE RIGHT WORDS. ENGLISH ISN'T HER FIRST LANGUAGE, AND SHE TAKES HER TIME, BUT THERE'S AN EASE ABOUT HER NOW THAT SUGGESTS SHE FEELS COMFORTABLE. SETTLED.

Halfway through the season, she's not just settled, she's become a key name on the London City Lionesses team sheet. "Yes, I feel good," she says, simply. "I'm very happy. I love playing and being with the team. It's a really amazing place." It hasn't always felt this familiar. Looking back at her first week at the club, it feels distant already.

"It feels like a long time ago!" she laughs. "I think I've learnt fast, and a lot here, and everyone believes in me and makes me feel welcome."

That belief didn't come overnight. Her early weeks were about adapting to a new league, a new country and a new style of football. "Yes, everything surprised me!" she says of life in England. "Maybe everything, even the people are a bit different!"

"I'm used to being here now," she says. "I've been to London; I did some shopping. I love shopping and I go all the time. I've been on the London Eye too!" A good day off is simple, and very Wassa. "I like to rest on a day off for a start," she says. "I might go to London. I love buying clothes and shopping. I've been to Bluewater too, when I am too lazy to go to London! It's all in a circle so you can't get lost!"

There are still things she misses. "I miss my family and my friends from France," she admits. "Sometimes French food too, like the bread is different. It's nice here, but better at home!"

On the pitch, Wassa had to earn her way in senior football. She didn't start against Arsenal, played limited minutes against Manchester United, but then came Everton away.

Her first start for London City Lionesses. The club's first Women's Super League win of the season. A statement performance at Goodison Park. "It was my first start," she says. "And I got told to just enjoy the moment and do the best I can do.”

She did more than that. “It was the first win of the season, at Goodison Park,” she adds, “so it was great for not just myself, but the team’s confidence too.”

Something shifted when she said that. The quiet, giggly presence off the pitch was met by authority on it — composed, physical, dominant in duels.

At just 19, she became a constant in London City lineup. “I think yes,” she says when asked if she felt trust after the Everton game. “I got told, train hard every day, and if you play it’s good, and if you don’t, you keep working hard.” “Now I play, but I keep working hard!” It’s a mindset that sums her up.

Sangaré is thoughtful when she reflects on her own development. She doesn’t overanalyse, but she knows where she’s improved. “I think physically,” she says. “Also, my one-vs-one defending, my anticipation as well. I think I have become a more well-rounded defender.”

The WSL has demanded that growth. “The physicality is strong; it is very demanding,” she explains. “The best thing about this league is that everyone can beat everyone and there are no easy games.”

She’s also been surrounded by experience — and she’s made the most of it. “Yes, I have learnt a lot from the experienced players,” she says. “I talk to Linus a lot, she talks to me a lot in games too. It is nice to learn from her on the pitch and in training too.”

You can see it in matches, the constant communication, the calm decisions, the quiet leadership from someone still learning the language, but already fluent in defending.

CHATTING TO WASSA SANGARÉ

This season hasn't just been about club football. Wassa's rise has been recognised at international level too, earning her a senior call-up and debut for France. "I was so surprised," she says. "I got a call after training. It was amazing."

There was comfort in familiarity. "It was nice to know Grace there too," she smiles. "It was the best moment of my career."

When she looks ahead, her goals are simple. Honest. Very 'Wassa'. "I just want to keep playing games," she says. "I didn't expect to play so many and that was my aim, to get experience." There are highlights she'll always remember. "I loved scoring against Sunderland in the FA Cup," she says. "That was a highlight and one of the best moments for me, it felt really good to score."

She wants to feel the same way again. "I'm not obsessed with it," she adds, smiling again, "but if the opportunity comes up, I'd love to score a goal in the Women's Super League too."

Wassa Sangaré might still speak softly, might still laugh nervously at questions, might still miss French bread – but on the pitch, she's anything but uncertain. Halfway through the season, she hasn't just settled in. She's become essential.

FREYA GODFREY'S STUNNING STRIKE WAS THE DIFFERENCE AS LONDON CITY CAME FROM BEHIND TO DEFEAT BRIGHTON AND HOVE ALBION TO EARN A HARD-FOUGHT BARCLAYS WOMEN'S SUPER LEAGUE VICTORY AT BROADFIELD STADIUM, CRAWLEY.

The Seagulls took a deserved lead midway through the first half through Kiko Seike's fine strike from the outside of her foot after she latched on to Madison Haley's backheel.

The visitors worked hard and levelled against the run of play through an own goal. Godfrey's wicked cross from the right wing was inadvertently volleyed in by Brighton defender Moeke Minami.

Player of the Match Godfrey's goal just shy of half-time secured Eder Maestre his first win as head coach.

Eder Maestre Quotes:

"WE ARE HAPPY WITH THE RESULT. WE FOUGHT HARD. WE KNEW IT WAS GOING TO BE A TOUGH GAME AND IT PROVED THAT WAY."

"IT IS ALWAYS HARD AWAY FROM HOME. I AM PROUD OF THE TEAM BECAUSE THE WAY WE WON WAS ABOUT FIGHT, WE WERE COMPACT AND TRYING TO NOT ALLOW CLEAR CHANCES. WE KNOW WE NEED TO KEEP WORKING ON OUR CONNECTIONS."

"IT MEANS A LOT TO EARN MY FIRST WIN AS HEAD COACH. MAYBE IT'S NOT THE WAY I PREFER TO WIN GAMES BUT WE TAKE THE THREE POINTS AND MOVE FORWARD."

"I AM HAPPY WITH THE RESULT BUT I KNOW WE CAN IMPROVE."

PAULA PARTIDO

LONDON CITY LIONESSES CAN CONFIRM THAT PAULA PARTIDO HAS BEEN RECALLED FROM HER LOAN SPELL WITH DUX LOGROÑO, RETURNING TO THE COPPERJAX COMMUNITY STADIUM THIS JANUARY.

The 20-year-old winger spent the first half of the 2024/25 season in Spain, making 17 appearances across Liga F and the Copa de la Reina. During her time with Logroño, Partido registered one goal and one assist, gaining valuable senior minutes in a highly competitive domestic environment.

Since arriving at London City Lionesses from Real Madrid in the summer, Partido has continued her development through consistent match exposure, building on her experience across elite European competitions and international youth football.

Her recall now brings another exciting option into the squad as the season enters a crucial phase, with Partido returning having added top-flight experience to her game.

Speaking on her return to London City Lionesses, Partido expressed her excitement about getting started back in England.

"I'm really happy to be here, I can't wait to get started and I want to play every minute the Head Coach gives me.

"The loan was important for me; it definitely gave me confidence in myself as a player."

Partido also reflected on her development, the support around her at the club, and the qualities she hopes to bring to the pitch.

"The Spanish players at the club, and Head Coach Eder can help me learn in football, but also the language too.

"I'm a player who likes to run, I'm fast, I like taking people on one-vs-one, they are my best abilities.

"I'm so happy to be here and I can't wait to meet the fans in the stadium."
