WELCOME BACK

TO THE COPPERJAX COMMUNITY STADIUM.

Tonight feels different.

An evening kick-off. Under the lights. Monday night football in Bromley. There's something special about it. The anticipation that builds throughout the day, the glow of the floodlights cutting through the sky, the sense that anything can happen once that whistle blows in the Adobe Women's FA Cup, with a ticket to the quarter-finals up for grabs. A place we have never reached before, in touching distance.

This is matchday, reimagined.
This is under the lights.
And what a fixture to bring it to life.

The last time we faced Tottenham Hotspur, it was nothing short of electric. A 4-2 victory in a thrilling encounter that had everything – quality, character and clinical finishing. At the heart of it all was Freya Godfrey. A brace. An assist. A Player of the Match performance that announced her on the biggest stage. It was the kind of display that demanded attention – and it earned her a senior England call-up soon after.

Since then, she hasn't looked back.

Freya has repeated that level ahead of the latest international selections, and this time she's joined by Poppy Pattinson, who we are immensely proud of after receiving her first senior international call-up. Two Lionesses, for club and country, lighting up the pitch here in Bromley and now preparing to represent on the international stage. It's a testament to the work being done, the standards being set, and the belief growing within this squad.

But tonight, it's about the collective.

It's about the noise echoing under the lights.

It's about the energy surging through the stands.

It's about making this stadium a fortress.

There is something powerful about football at night. The tackles feel sharper. The goals feel louder. The moments feel bigger. And with your backing, this place becomes a stage.

So let's make it one to remember.

Wear your colours with pride. Raise your voices. Be part of a different kind of matchday.

Let's light up Bromley together on this Monday night and create an atmosphere that carries the team from first whistle to last.

This is our home.
This is Under the Lights.
Let's make it shine.

KOSVARE ASLLANI

HI EVERYONE,

I've been lucky enough to play in World Cups, Champions League nights and some of the biggest games in football. Those experiences stay with you. They remind you how much moments matter, especially in knockout games like this, where we only get one chance.

That is the beauty of the cup football. On the night, you have to be brave, and you have to do it together.

When I joined this project right at the beginning, I knew it wouldn't happen overnight. Building something takes time, belief and work every single day. But I also knew how special it could become. Games like this are part of that journey, and for a club like London City Lionesses that's still growing and pushing to make its mark, these cup nights are chances to create memories and belief.

Tonight in Bromley, with you there backing us, it's always a great feeling walking out. Evening games have a different edge to them, under the lights, the noise of the fans, a little bit colder, and as players, we feel that.

This group is ready. We work hard for each other every day and we know what this badge represents. We'll fight for every ball and give everything we have.

So if you're with us tonight, bring your voices and your belief. Stand with us under the lights.

Let's make it count.

Kosse.

LIONESSES: CLUB AND COUNTRY

NEXT MONTH, TWO OF OUR OWN WILL WALK INTO AN ENGLAND SENIOR CAMP AS LONDON CITY LIONESSES. FREYA GODFREY AND POPPY PATTINSON HAVE BOTH BEEN CALLED UP BY SARINA WIEGMAN FOR THE UPCOMING WORLD CUP QUALIFIERS AGAINST UKRAINE AND ICELAND - A HUGE MOMENT FOR THEM INDIVIDUALLY, AND FOR OUR CLUB COLLECTIVELY.

FREYA GODFREY - 20
ENGLAND SENIOR SQUAD

Freya earned her first senior England call-up during the last international break at just 20 years old, and she's carried that momentum straight back into club football.

She found the net against Manchester City, then followed it up with the winner away at Brighton – a strike that showed exactly what she's about. Direct, sharp and confident in front of goal.

Out on the right, she's becoming a real problem for defenders. The stepover, the ability to shift it either side, the quick release to get her shot away – it's decisive and effective. She plays with energy and belief, and you can see her growing with every game. It's been a strong run of form, and this latest call-up reflects that.

POPPY PATTINSON - 25
ENGLAND SENIOR SQUAD

For Poppy, this is her first senior England call-up at 25 after progressing through every age group from Under-17 to Under-23. It's a step she's earned over time.

Her start at London City after signing in the summer was disrupted by injury, which meant she missed the opening part of the season. Since returning, she's built her minutes steadily. From the Sunderland FA Cup fixture onwards, she's been a consistent presence and has become a regular in Head Coach Eder Maestre's side.

There's a reliability to her game and a level-headedness around the group that matters across a long season. She's worked her way into rhythm, and the recognition at international level has followed.

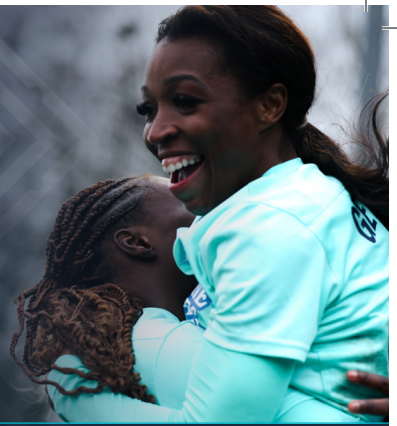

For Freya and Poppy to represent England while representing London City Lionesses is something we are incredibly proud of. They carry our badge with them into camp, and they do so on the back of performances earned here, in front of you.

We'll be watching, supporting and celebrating every moment. Go and smash it, Poppy and Freya!

MATCH PREVIEW

TONIGHT'S GAME UNDER THE LIGHTS PROMISES TO BE A HUGE ALL-WSL CLASH BETWEEN TWO SIDES IMPRESSING THIS YEAR IN THE LEAGUE.

London City Lionesses, in our inaugural WSL season, currently sit in 6th place in the league, over halfway into the season after being promoted at the end of last season.

Last time out, we narrowly lost away to Manchester United but put in a strong performance against a top side not just in England, but in Europe as well.

Tottenham Hotspur are also in the top half of the table, coming into this FA Cup clash with a strong league position of sixth.

The visitors also come into this game high on confidence, beating Aston Villa 7-3 last time out in one of the most entertaining top-flight games this season across the league.

They did it with six different goalscorers, with Signe Gaupset, Bethany England, Olivia Holdt, Cathinka Tandberg, Maika Hamano and Julie Blakstad all getting on the scoresheet.

London City saw off WSL2 side Sunderland to reach the fifth round of this year's competition. It was Eder Maestre's first win as Head Coach of London City, in tough conditions, against a strong Sunderland side after a long away trip. Wassá Sangaré's header was the difference between the two sides, linking up with international teammate Grace Geyoro, glancing goalwards her perfect corner kick.

Tottenham Hotspur had to get past WSL opposition to book their place in the fifth round, and cruised past Leicester City thanks to goals courtesy of Beth England and substitutes Drew Spence and Lenna Gunning-Williams.
